Hawkes Harbor Se Hinton

Hawkes Harbor is the story of Jamie Sommers. Jamie's parents both died when he was young leaving Jamie to be reared in a Catholic orphanage. After turning 18, Jamie joins the Navy, serves 3 years and becomes a smuggler after meeting an Irish pirate named Kellen Quinn. The story only gets stranger from there.

Hawkes Harbor by S. E. Hinton

Hawkes Harbor has a quirky twist to its tale which encompasses her love for the supernatural and character formation. Being dyslexic I struggle to read but have loved every word of SE Hinton's books, worth the effort!

Hawkes Harbor, though different from my other books, is still very much a "S.E. Hinton" novel-character driven, focusing on relationships, a story of one man's journey to a different view of the world. I think most writers begin because writing is fun-which grows out of a conviction that reading is fun.
