Malekith's first memories were of the blue skies over Nagarythe. To this day, he has vivid recollections of his first horse ride, the sight of dragons moving across an empty sky, the cloud-girth mountains, the emerald seas. He could still remember talking with his father in their few quiet moments together when he was young.

The book that details malekiths early years is probably my favourite black library book to date. what malekith becomes is unrecognisable to the malekith who conquers the old world. early malekith was that guy who spits in the face of fate. the legacy malekith forged for himself is greater then anything the pheonix crown would of given him.Too bad he threw it alll away because his mother was playing on his insecurities.
