It's easy to search Wikibooks by topic, and there are separate sections for recipes and childrens' textbooks. You can download any page as a PDF using a link provided in the left-hand menu, but unfortunately there's no support for other formats. There's also Collection Creator - a handy tool that lets you collate several pages, organize them, and export them together (again, in PDF format). It's a nice feature that enables you to customize your reading material, but it's a bit of a hassle, and is really designed for readers who want printouts. The easiest way to read Wikibooks is simply to open them in your web browser.

This Book Does Not Exist is a puzzle of a book, drawing heavily on The House of Leaves, and, in a certain sense, books like Brett Easton Ellis' Lunar Park. It's loaded with pop culture references which seems to irritate a lot of people but, whatever, I think it's a great style and an excellent way to tie the reader in to the reality of the story.
